Now rehearsing in Lafayette... Since 1984, CCCC has provided choral music education to children ages 6-18. Artistic director, Martin Benvenuto, is dedicated to providing quality music education and performance excellence for all choristers. And in addition, through chorus, your children build character, self-confidence and leadership skills – assets that last a lifetime. They also have fun while building lasting friendships! CCCC is a non-profit, tuition-based, performing chorus. Call us today for more information and for a placement interview.
