

SCHOOL PERMISSION SLIP

TO BE EXCUSED FROM SCHOOL
TO ATTEND CCCC PERFORMANCES

Dear Teacher and Principal,

_____ is a member of Contra Costa Children's Chorus, a nationally and internationally recognized organization devoted to creating choral excellence, promoting lasting friendships, instilling values of self discipline and commitment while inspiring the artist within each child through the power of music since 1984. Our outstanding music program affords students the opportunity to perform their skills. The student named above has their parents' permission to be excused from school during the times on the following dates.

Date                      Time                      Event                      Returning

---

Date                      Time                      Event                      Returning

---

Date                      Time                      Event                      Returning

---

Date                      Time                      Event                      Returning

---

Date                      Time                      Event                      Returning

---

Thank you for your understanding and acknowledgment of this opportunity to participate in this professional performing experience.

Sincerely,

Martín Benvenuto
Artistic Director